Private Events at South Beach

Nestled deep in Sea Pines Plantation on Hilton Head Island, South Beach Marina is an ideal venue for your special occasions. The breathtaking views of Braddock's Cove and the unique ambience of The Wreck of the Salty Dog offer an inviting and picturesque environment that compliments any event.

South Beach Marina is a destination and tradition that thousands of families have enjoyed for over 25 years. With a collection of retail shops, restaurants, accommodations, and recreational activities, South Beach Marina is an excellent way to capitalize on Hilton Head Island's major attractions.

Wedding receptions, anniversary & birthday celebrations, family reunions, and business retreats are just a few events that benefit from our professional services. From start to finish, the experienced Salty Dog Catering team will be there to ensure all of your needs and expectations are met and exceeded.

The Wreck of the Salty Dog

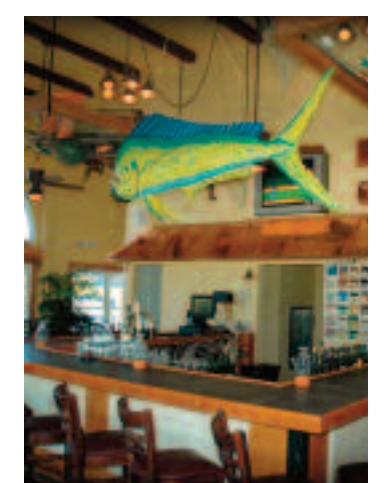

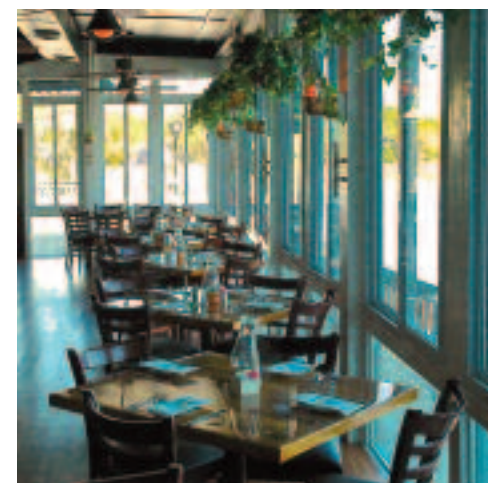

The Wreck of the Salty Dog provides the perfect location for special events on Hilton Head Island from Labor Day through Memorial Day. Ideally located at South Beach Marina in Sea Pines, The Wreck offers waterside dining in the upstairs dining room and the downstairs glassed-in porch with additional seating outside under the covered deck or along the water. Choose which ever suits your needs, and don't worry about the weather. The Wreck has both inside and outside space available.

Inside options include the glass porch overlooking South Beach Marina that can hold up to 50 people comfortably. The upstairs includes a dining area suitable for another 50 people, plus a private bar, fire place and private outside deck. There is even plenty of room to set up some small live entertainment and a dance floor. Space may be reserved separately or all together.

Outside options are just as versatile. The large deck comfortably holds an additional 60 people, which includes a covered porch and outside bar. For more information, please contact us at 843.290.9735.
